

BYLAWS OF PARADISE COUNTRY CLUB, INC.

(Revised November 27, 2018)

ARTICLE I

NAME, MISSION, AND OBJECTIVES OF CORPORATION

Section 1. Name. This Corporation shall be known as the Paradise Country Club, Inc., hereinafter called “Paradise” or the “Club.”

Section 2. Mission. The Mission of Paradise Country Club, Inc. is to organize and operate a safe, family-oriented, recreational club for the pleasure of its members.

Section 3. Objectives.

- Provide and maintain tennis courts, swimming pools, a boating pond, a softball field, and such other recreational, playground, and athletic facilities, as the Board of Directors may from time to time deem advisable.
- Provide for the enjoyment, entertainment, and recreational instruction of its members.
- Foster and promote good fellowship and family values.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility. Any individual who subscribes to the Mission of the Club may become a member of the Paradise Country Club, Inc. subject to compliance with these Bylaws. Membership shall be available without regard to race, creed, color, gender, or national origin.

Section 2. Applicants. Persons may become members of Paradise Country Club, Inc. only upon favorable action by the Board of Directors of the Club after submitting an application to the Membership Director. The application must be reviewed, verified and presented to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, require an investigation of any prospective member, including a personal interview, prior to acting upon the membership application. After due investigation and approval the Board of Directors shall act on the proposed new member application. Election to membership shall be by a simple majority of the Board of Directors. All proceedings regarding election of members shall be strictly confidential. The Board of Directors may, from time to time, establish the maximum total Club memberships in order to avoid overcrowding, overuse of the Club facilities, and to maintain safety.

Section 3. Categories. The following categories of Club membership may be offered:

- Family membership shall include two adults and immediate family members living in the same household. An immediate family member is defined as children, grandchildren, grandparents, siblings, parent and parent's spouse.
- Single Family membership shall include one adult and immediate family members living in the same household.
- Couple membership shall include two adults only, living in the same household, with no children under the age of sixteen. Children sixteen years of age and older and other family members living in the same household may be admitted to the Club as defined by current guest policies.
- Single membership shall include any individual, eighteen years of age or older, without children under the age of sixteen. Children sixteen years of age and older and other family members living in the same household may be admitted to the Club as defined by current guest policies.
- Twenty-year membership shall include any membership entering the twenty-first year and be entitled to a thirty-three percent (33%) discount on its membership dues.

Section 4. Death of a Member. Upon the death of any adult person holding a membership (except a single membership), the membership shall automatically pass to the surviving adult member for the remainder of the membership.

Section 5. Membership Nontransferable. The membership and the rights and privileges of a member shall not be transferable.

Section 6. Vote. Each membership shall have only one vote at a meeting of the members.

Section 7. Membership as a Privilege. Membership in the Club is considered a privilege, not a right. Any individual knowingly misrepresenting their membership category shall be subject to expulsion in accordance with Article XI, Section 2.

ARTICLE III FEES AND DUES

Section 1. Initiation Fee. All accepted applications for membership shall be assessed an initiation fee to be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Dues. Annual dues for each category of membership shall be established by a vote of the members at the Fall Semi-Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors shall make a recommendation to the membership concerning the dues. Notice of its recommendation shall be emailed to the members prior to each Fall Semi-Annual Meeting. Members who choose not to receive emails shall be notified by mail.

Section 3. Payment of Dues. The annual dues shall be payable in accordance with a payment schedule which shall be established by the Board of Directors each year. Said schedule shall be indicated on the yearly bills sent to the members and dues shall be paid to the Financial Secretary.

ARTICLE IV CAPITAL PROJECTS

Section 1. Capital Projects. Any capital projects in excess of $100,000, excluding emergencies, shall require the project scope to be presented and voted on by the membership at a General or Special Meeting. Such vote shall only be valid if the specific item appears on the advanced agenda.
